22nd September 2015

Dear Parents and Carers,

We will be celebrating 'Roald Dahl Day' on Friday 2nd October. Children in Years 1-6 will spend the day exploring one of his mayhem-filled and much-loved books to produce some very special work.

In order to make the day more memorable and exciting, we would like children to come to school dressed as a character from any of Roald Dahl's books. The adults will be joining in too!

There will be no £1 'charge' for this non-uniform event. However, we would like to request that parents make a voluntary donation (of whatever they can afford) towards the cost of purchasing new books for our school.

FS2 will not be taking part in this event as the children will still be getting used to their new surroundings. They will have their own dress-up days throughout the year.

We look forward to sharing a fun-filled day next week. Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs R Minter
Deputy Headteacher
